1. Instruction for Volkspolizei artillery non-coms is now given at Gloewen, Zittau and Guestrow. Preparatory schooling is carried on at all garrison points. There are now eighty men of the Rostock VPD taking part in these preparatory courses under a lieutenant of artillery and some former non-coms of the old German army.
2. The armored school at Primerwald has received two small amphibian tanks. The instructors are former tank drivers. The head of the school is a Soviet colonel, attached to a unit at Fuerstenberg. He is very friendly with the Germans and often goes hunting with them.
3. A gas school has been set up at Schwerin with an officer of the old Celle gas school in charge.
4. According to Volkspolizei officers, there are now three schools in the Soviet Union which accept German officers for training. Seepolizei officers go to Leningrad, infantry officers to Smolensk, and artillery officers to Moscow.
